WALKER-GRANT MIDDLE SCHOOL 1971-72

Change is the key to our times. Nowhere can one look without being confronted with it. The demand change brings on each of us is tremendous! The world seems to expect us to accept change as a mater of course and gives little thought to the disruption and discomfort that change brings.

Walker-Grant is in itself a world of change. Each year over two hundred young people begin a two year program here whose purpose is to accomodate and assist them in changing from a child into a young adult. The proximity afforded me as principal keeps me vitally aware of the problems brought by change to each of you. If I did not know that growth is painful, that God and nature intend for you to become men and women, and that each of you is destined to suffering his own pain I would take little pleasure from my work.

Watching you grow and develop is, however, pure delight. Your aspirations and ambitions inspire me. I believe tomorrow's world will be a better place because of you and because of the changes you will suffer to create it.

Charles F. Duff
Principal

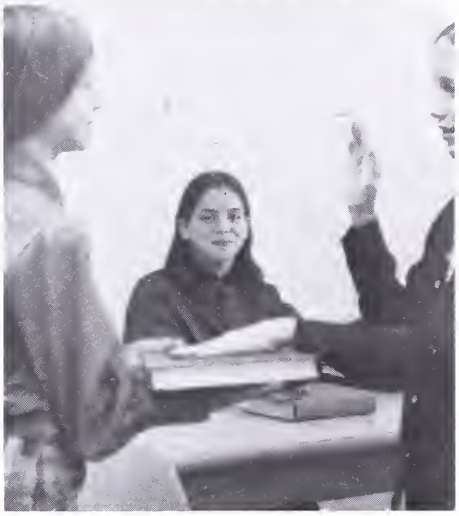
Now really Mrs. Gray

Just a touch of arsenic

Spider-man invades W-G

Lunchtime



Really I promise

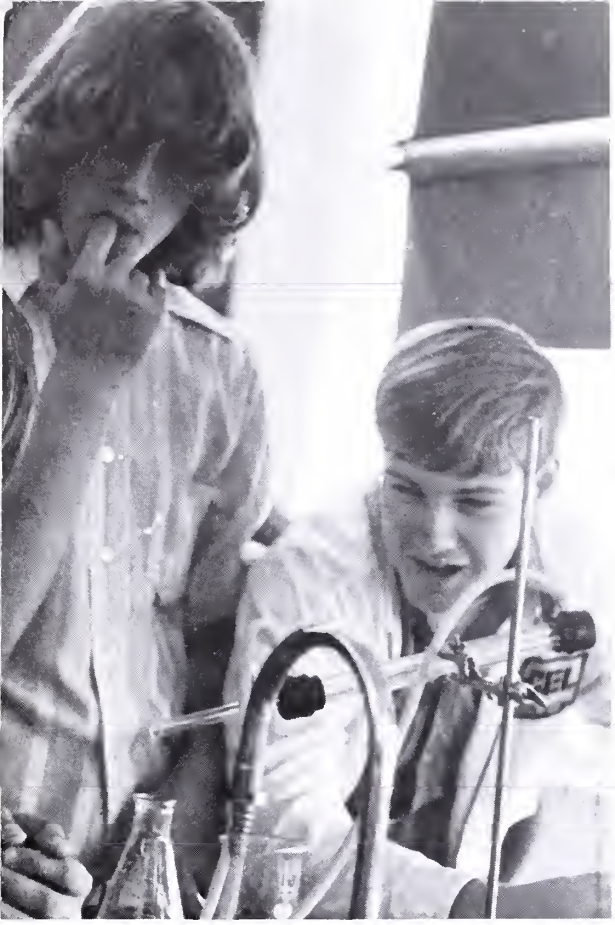
The point's good!

Concentration

Lounging

Hard at work

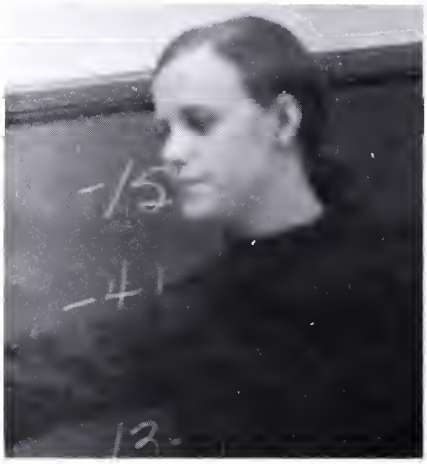
I wonder if she's as hard as they say?



That old Mountain Dew

Susan's the dunce

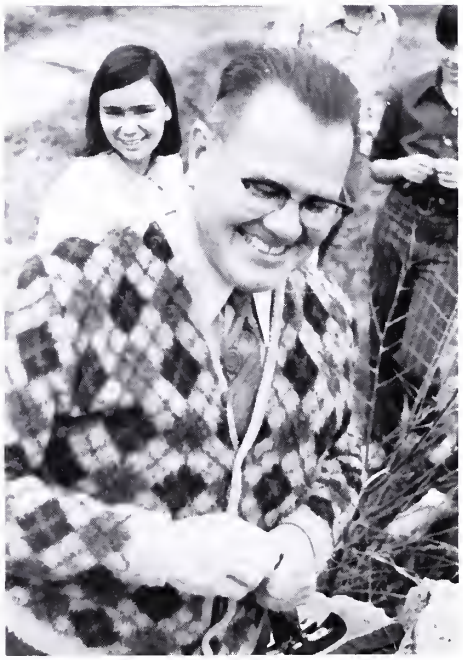
Bottoms up!



And do it right this time.

Yea' team!

Roman goddesses at W-G?



If they don't shut up, I may shoot one.

Artist at work.

Hurry up I gotta get to work.

Rain, sleet, shine or snow, from building to building we shall go.

Once upon a time . . .

Would you repeat that please?

The devil made me do it

How should I know?

And so then, I told her . . .

I tell you, this school gets more like a prison every day.

Really I didn't do anything

Happiness is being a hall monitor

After school rally

Now let me see, where did I put my apron?

Eighth grade signs out

Keep your eyes on your own paper, Mrs. Myers.

Here comes da Judge!

Up, Up and Away!

Now it's not that bad Ann

Don't look now, but I think he just shot Mr. Calloway.
